Malbecs of the World competition held annually in Mendoza, Argentina.

Grape Anticipation Magazine - 90 Points. "Dark red color and a smoky, peppery nose. On the palate, notes of oak and cedar with a rich, smooth finish with well-rounded tannins."

World Wine Competition - Tastings.com - Silver Medal - Highly Recommended - "Dark amethyst color. Dusty pepper, praline and blackberry aromas through a dry-yet-fruity medium body with bold cedar and earth notes. Finishes with a tart chewy tannin fade. Try with roasted beef."
