Argentina Wine

The Nahuel Brand

Nahuel - Nahuel is a wine brand owned by Patagonia Wine & Imports out of South Carolina. Nahuel is a word from the Mapuche Indian tribe which means mountain lion. The Mapuche are the indigenous people of Chile and Argentina. One of the Patagonia Wine & Imports owners, Walter Pecile, once lived on a beautiful lake in Argentina called the Nahuel Haupi (Eye of the Mountain Lion).

Nahuel, A Partnership with Argentine Bodegas - Patagonia Wine & Imports partners with Argentine bodegas to provide the best wine for specified price levels.

Current Lineup - Nahuel offers a Malbec, a Reserve Malbec, a Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon and a Pinot Noir. These three wines were reviewed by Sommeliers in the US prior to being added to the Nahuel brand. Patagonia Wine & Imports will continue to search throughout Argentina for other varietals to represent our brand.
